Hetauda, the capital of Bagmati Province, also suffered irreparable damage due to the demonstrations and protests of Gen Z.

After the damage caused to Ward No. 4 of Hetauda Sub-metropolitan City, where the secretariat building of the Rotary Club of Hetauda is located, due to the demonstrations and protests of Gen Z, the Rotary Club of Hetauda has handed over four three-seater metal chairs with the aim of facilitating work management and service recipients.

Ward No. 4 and the club have been collaborating in various social works.
